

International Alumnus Inspires SLIET Students with Career and Mindset Insights

The Department of Food Engineering & Technology, SLIET Longowal, organized an alumni motivational and career guidance lecture on February 18, 2026, at LCF-5 in association with the AFST(I) Longowal Chapter. The session was delivered by distinguished alumnus of 2014 batch Mr. Ram Singh, Receiving Manager at Allegion, Canada.

The program commenced with a warm welcome and Introduction of the guest speaker by Head of the department Prof. C. S. Riar. Attended by over 50 students, the lecture focused on the importance of mindset, discipline, and continuous learning in achieving professional success. Mr. Singh shared his personal journey, highlighting perseverance and the role of positive thinking in overcoming challenges through a presentation entitled “The Secret – Mind-set, Mentorship & Professional Success,”. He also provided valuable guidance on interview preparation, time management, and professional discipline, emphasizing that skills and attitude are more important than academic scores. The interactive session encouraged students to stay focused, set clear goals, and explore innovative career paths.

During the interactive session, students asked several questions such as why he chose the food technology field, how to stay focused, and how to overcome distractions. He shared that reading the self-help book “The Secret” brought a major transformation in his life. He advised students to write down their goals, place them where they can be seen daily, and follow them consistently until they become habits.

The session concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Prof. C. S. Riar. The esteemed guest was also felicitated and appreciated by Prof. Navdeep Jindal, Dr. Sukhcham Singh, and Dr. Dharmesh Chandra Saxena, who acknowledged his valuable insights and his efforts in motivating the students.

Overall, the lecture proved to be highly inspirational and impactful. Students gained important insights into the significance of hard work, the right mindset, discipline, and continuous learning in achieving success. Mr. Ram Singh's remarkable journey—from undertaking humble beginnings to becoming a Receiving Manager in a multinational company—left a lasting impression on the audience. The session strongly encouraged students to dream big and pursue their goals with dedication and perseverance.
